HEBREWS OBSERVE DAY OF LONG FAST

Yom Kippur, Most Important of Jewish Holidays, Begins at Sun- down This Evening.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
New York, Sept. 29.—When the first star glows in the heavens this evening the most solemn, important and strictly observed of all Jewish holidays, Yom Kippur, the day of atonement, the day of the long fast, is ushered in. It is the 10th day of the month of Tishri and the end of the 10th penitential days, which are devoted to repentance and prayers. Yom Kippur is held as a strict fast day by the orthodox Jew. It begins as do all the fasts and festivals, in the Jewish calendar, in the evening and continues until the following evening. During the twenty-four hours from sunset to sunset no food or water passes the lips of the devout Hebrews. Men and women alike are required to fast, and the only ones who are exempted from this requirement are children, the very aged, persons in ill health, and nursing mothers.

Beside the long fast the day is devoted to prayers of forgiveness of sin and in all the Jewish calendar there is no occasion which is so solemn and so fraught with deep sentiment as at this time. The services in the orthodox synagogue are practically continuous. This evening the holiday is ushered in with the Kol Nidre, observed by the reformed and orthodox alike, although under different circumstances. The solemn and inspiring music has been adapted to modern orchestras and is thus heard in the sanctuaries of the reformed. In the synagogues of the orthodox it is chanted by the cantors. The services of tomorrow are divided into four sections, known as Shacharit, Mussaf, Mincha, and N'hill, but there is no intermission between the different sections, and the services continue until sunset, when the Shofar is sounded once only as an indication that the fast is ended.

NEW BATTLESHIP IS PUT IN COMMISSION

Only Boat Built by Government En- tered Service at Brooklyn Navy Yard Today.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
New York, Sept. 29.—At the Brooklyn navy yard the battleship Connecticut was put in commission today with customary ceremonies, including the muster of the crew on deck while the Stars and Stripes were raised aloft and the band played the national anthem. More than ordinary interest was displayed in the event by naval men owing to the fact that the Connecticut is the only battleship of the modern navy to be built by the government itself. She is of 16,000 tons displacement and is designed to have a speed of 16 knots an hour.

Nels Benson, well-known town of Auburn farmer, near Chippewa Falls, was killed while driving his horse. He was tamed and went to sleep on the wagon seat after first tending the reins around his waist. When he awoke the horses were running away. He was thrown from the wagon and dragged a quarter of a mile.

STATE FAIR AND STATE CONVENTION

Missouri Has Display of Products and Kentucky Is to Hold Meeting for Boom Purposes.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Sedalia, Mo., Sept. 29.—The sixth annual Missouri state fair opened today, to continue through the coming week. From every point of view the fair this year is regarded as the best of its kind ever held in Missouri. All the industrial activities of the state are adequately represented. The most prominent displays, of course, are devoted to the agricultural and live stock industries. The agricultural palace is filled to overflowing with the choicest exhibits from farm, field, garden and orchard. Tuesday will be the big day of the coming week, when the finest live stock nation in America will be formally dedicated by Governor Folk. A good racing program has been arranged for the week.

Wanderer, Ky., Sept. 29.—Great preparations are being made for the fifth Kentucky State Development convention, which is to be held here week after next. Advice received by the local committee indicate that over 500 of the most prominent business men of the Blue Grass state will be in attendance. The subjects slated for consideration by the convention include revenue and taxation, education, agriculture, the mining and mineral resources of the state and their development, forestry, manufacturing, commerce, railroads, labor and immigration, and numerous other matters relating to the industrial development of the state.

NEWS FORECAST OF COMING WEEK

LAST OF POLITICAL CONVEN- TIONS HAS BEEN HELD.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Washington, D. C., Sept. 29.—The week just closed saw the last of the state conventions to name candidates for offices to be filled at the approaching election in November. From now on the campaign will be in full blast, with the general interest of the country centered in the contest in New York state and in a lesser degree in Pennsylvania, where the democrats and Lincoln republicans have combined to defeat the regular republican organization as dominated by Penrose and his coterie. William J. Bryan will continue his tour in the south, and in other parts of the country Secretary Shaw, Speaker Cannon, Senator Beveridge and other prominent spellbinders will continue their political speech-making.

President Roosevelt is due back in Washington the first of the week, but will hardly get settled in the White House when he will make a short trip to Pennsylvania to attend the dedication of the new state capitol at Harrisburg next Thursday. His address on that occasion, it is announced, will not be of a political nature.

The end of the hot weather period ushers in the usual large number of conventions of religious, missionary, trade and other organizations, and it is also the period of many state fairs and fall carnivals.

Among the notable conventions of the coming week will be those of the National Association of Retail Druggists at Atlanta, the United Irish League of America at Philadelphia, and the National Association of Postmasters at St. Louis.

The democrats of Massachusetts will hold their state nominating convention Thursday and the republicans will meet the day following. Governor Guild will be unanimously renominated by the republicans, while the democratic convention will be made lively by the fight of the regular organization against the candidacy of District Attorney Moran for the gubernatorial nomination.

A state primary election will be held in Georgia Wednesday for the nomination of three judges of the new state court of appeals. The regular election for statehouse officers takes place at the same time.

The international race for the Vanderbilt cup will be held over the Long Island course Saturday. Another event of the same day will be the launching of the armored cruiser North Carolina at Newport News.

SEVEN KILLED; TWENTY- FIVE OTHERS ARE INJURED

Fast New York Train Crashes Into Another Train On The Main Track.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 29.—The Long branch express on the Pennsylvania railroad today ran into the rear end of the Trenton express at Eddington, nineteen miles north of the city. Seven persons are reported killed and twenty-five injured. The Trenton express had stopped four hundred yards north of Eddington to repair a damage to a brake when the Long branch express came thundering along at a mile-a-minute speed and crashed into the rear with terrific effect. The engine ploughed halfway through the rear coach of the Trenton train. The car ahead of the rear coach was crushed to kindling wood and the other coaches crippled. A relief train composed of the remaining cars of the Long branch train was quickly made up and brought twelve of the injured to West Philadelphia, where they were placed in hospitals.

General Manager Atterbury of the Pennsylvania railroad stated this afternoon that only two persons were killed, and twenty-nine injured, some slightly.

LATER REPORTS SHOW LOSS WILL BE VERY HEAVY

The Storm Which Swept The South Gives Promise To Be Worse Than Was First Thought.

RAMON CORRAL IS REAL PRESIDENT OF MEXICO

Performs Duties That Weigh Too Heavily On Shoulders Of Porfirio Diaz-- Will Be Successor.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
City of Mexico, Sept. 29.—To those having an inside knowledge of public affairs in Mexico it has become more and more apparent during the past few months that the burden of the presidency is being gradually but unmistakably shifted from the shoulders of Porfirio Diaz to those of Ramon Corral, the titular vice-president of the republic. Diaz, the weight of his years and the duties of his high office have become burdensome to him. Moreover he has been unable to find any permanent relief from the physical ailments from which he has suffered for several years. An announcement of his resignation of the presidency at an early date would cause no surprise to those fully acquainted with the facts.

The constitutional amendments adopted several years ago provide that in the event of the death, disability or absence from the republic of the President, the vice-president shall immediately assume the duties of the presidency without the necessity of taking a new oath. This means that Ramon Corral, who drafted the law creating the vice-presidency, will be the next president of Mexico. In official circles Corral is already recognized as the real power and Diaz the shadow. It is now known that for nearly six months past all the important duties of the presidency have been under the direct and personal supervision of the vice-president.

Diaz and Corral have worked hand in hand for years and it is believed that the accession of the latter to the presidency would mean a continuation of the enlightened and progressive policy of his predecessor. Corral made public announcement of this fact when, in accepting the vice-presidency, he said: "I have to declare that if the popular vote shall favor me with election I will have no other policy than that of seconding that of President Diaz."

Among all the public men of Mexico today Corral is considered the best equipped by education, experience and temperament to succeed the "Peace President." He is a native of the state of Sonora, where he was born January 10, 1854, the son of the editor of an insignificant newspaper. He was educated in the public schools, and at the age of 20, was himself actively engaged in his father's profession. In 1875 he engaged in a successful revolution, the same which made Diaz president, elected to the legislature and made secretary of state for Sonora. He made a good record; his ability as a politician and administrator was demonstrated. He was promoted to governor and continued to conduct the affairs of Sonora so wisely and ably that in 1900, when his term expired, Diaz brought him to the capital and made him governor of the federal district. Having given him a thorough trial, he took him into the cabinet as minister of the interior three years ago and last December had him elected vice-president and placed in the direct line of succession to the presidency.

Monster Many

Feet in Length

Probably no other medicine ever sold in this country has aroused the same amount of discussion as Cooper's New Discovery, the preparation introduced in the leading cities during the past few years by L. T. Cooper, the young philanthropist.

Cooper claims that most stomach trouble is caused by internal parasites or tape worms and that his medicine will drive these creatures from the human system almost immediately.

Thousands of people in various cities visited by Mr. Cooper have stomach trouble and have been relieved of one of these creatures. In consequence his medicine has sold like wildfire wherever introduced.

Mr. O. C. Dunkman, of 819 Charlotte St., Cincinnati, Ohio, gives the following account of a case of this character: "For months I have been troubled with a drowsy listless feeling. I began taking Cooper's New Discovery and in two days was relieved of a tape worm thirty feet long.
The tired feeling has left me. I have gained in weight and I consider Cooper's New Discovery a God-send.
Now I know what all this time."

"B. B. Helmreich is the agent for the Cooper preparation in this city.
He says: 'We are selling Cooper's New Discovery and Quick Relief in very large quantities lately and the medicines are giving remarkable satisfaction.'

CHANGES AMONG
HEADS OF ARMY

TWO IMPORTANT OFFICERS
PLACED ON RETIRED LIST.

NEW INSPECTOR GENERAL

Colonel E. A. Garlington Succeeds
Brigadier General George H. Burton—New Chief of Artillery.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Washington, D. C., Sept. 29.—Important changes among the high officers of the army will be made Monday when Brigadier General George H.

Burton, inspector general, and Brigadier General Samuel H. Mills, chief of artillery, will be placed on the retired list on their own applications. Gen. Mills will be succeeded as chief of artillery by Lieut.

tenant Colonel Arthur Murray, now assistant to the chief of artillery, while Colonel E. A. Garlington will succeed General Burton as inspector general of the army.

Colonel Murray, the new chief of artillery, was born in Bowling Green, Mo., April 20, 1851. He was appointed to the West Point academy in 1870 and graduated second in his class.

His first promotion came in 1878, when he was made first lieutenant in the First United States Artillery. In 1880, he was honor graduate No. 21 in the artillery school at Fort Monroe.

For six years thereafter he was an instructor in the department of natural and experimental philosophy at the West Point academy. From 1887 to 1891 he was acting judge advocate general of the department of Missouri, and for a brief period thereafter was acting assistant adjutant general, department of Dakota. On the outbreak of the war with Spain he was given a captaincy in the first artillery and served through the Cuban campaign. Afterwards he served with distinction in the Philippines. Colonel Murray was admitted to the bar in the United States circuit court at St. Louis in 1895.

Colonel E. A. Garlington, the new inspector general of the army, is the brother-in-law of Gen. J. Franklin Bell, chief of staff, and is well known in the military service. He entered the army in 1872 as a cadet at the military academy.
He will have a long time to serve, as he does not retire until 1919. Col. Garlington is a native of South Carolina and was appointed to the military academy from Georgia.

The change in the head of the inspector general's department revives the gossip concerning the abolition of that corps, a subject which has been discussed at various times in the army and before congress. Each time it has been suggested the inspectors general have rallied to defeat the proposition, but with the decrease of the permanent personnel of the corps by the detail of line officers to duty as inspectors general.

Charcoal Kills
Bad Breath

Bad Odor of Indigestion, Smoking, Drinking or Eating Can Be Instantly Stopped.

Sample Package Mailed Free.

Other people notice your bad breath where you would not notice it at all. It is nauseating to other people to stand before them while you are talking, give them a whiff of two of your bad breaths on your stomach.
It usually comes from food fermenting on your stomach.

Sometimes you have it in the morning, that awful sour, bilious, bad breath. You can stop that at once by swallowing one or two Stuart Charcoal Lozenges, the most powerful gas and odor absorbers ever prepared.

Sometimes your meals will reveal themselves in your breath to those who talk to you. You've had onions, or of a sudden you belch in the face of your friend. Charcoal is a wonderful absorber of odors, as every one knows. That is why Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are quick to stop all gas from indigestion.

Don't use breath perfumes. They never conceal the odor, and never absorb the gas that causes the odor. Besides, the very fact of using them reveals the reason for their use. Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges in the first place stop for good all sour breath and belching of gas, and make your breath pure, fresh and sweet just after your meal. Then no one will turn his face away from you when you breathe or talk; your breath will be pure and fresh, and besides your food will taste so much better to you at your next meal. Just try it.

Charcoal does other wonderful things, too. It carries away from your stomach and intestines, all the impurities there massed together, and which causes the bad breath. Charcoal is a purifier, as well as an absorber.

Charcoal is now by far the best, most easy and mild laxative known.
A whole boxful will do no harm; infact, the more you take the better.
Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are made of pure willow charcoal mixed with just a faint flavor of honey to make them palatable for you, but not too sweet. You just chew them like candy. They are absolutely harmless.

Get a new, pure, sweet breath, freshen your stomach for your next meal, and keep the intestines in good working order. These two things are the secret of good health and long life.
You can get all the charcoal necessary to do these wonderful things by getting Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges.
We want you to test these little wonder workers yourself before you buy them. So send us your full name and address for a free sample of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges. Then, and you have tried the sample, and you have been convinced, go to your druggist and get a 25c box of them. You'll feel better all over, more comfortable, and "cleaner" inside.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package, free. Address shall Mich.

LAYING THE CORNER-STONE

The above picture was taken just at the time the official ceremony of laying the corner stone of the new Catholic church in Janesville was made last Sunday.

The above picture was taken at Evansville last Sunday and shows the crowds which attended the ceremony of laying the corner stone of the new church.

The above picture was taken on a recent warm day near the corner of East Street and Second street. It is not an unusual sight to see twice this number of little people enjoying themselves in this vicinity and still they say Janesville is not growing.

There are naturally fewer friends to muster to the support of the department. It has been held that the army inspection could be done by officers detached especially for that purpose, and that the work could be conducted under the military secretary's department of the general staff without the maintenance of a separate corps.

ers from Kentucky, Tennessee, Ohio, Maryland, Indiana, Virginia and Wis-

Clarksville, Tennessee, beginning Oc-

Washington Street
WASHOUT HOLE FULL

Teams Pass Over Street Once More—Work Will Be Completed Within a Week.

By next Saturday night the work of filling the washout hole on Washington street, will practically be completed. Already teams are allowed to pass over, such progress having been made. The dirt that is now being unloaded is placed on the east side of the street, to prevent further danger of the thoroughfare being undisturbed.
The largest part of the filling was taken from the field property nearby, but many loads came from First ward streets that are now being graded.

A PESTIFEROUS GERM.

Burrows Up the Scalp Into Dandruff and Saps the Hair's Vitality.

People who complain of falling hair as a rule do not know that it is the result of dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite burrowing up the scalp as it digs down to the sheath in which the hair is fed in the scalp. Before long the hair root is shriveled up and the hair drops out.
If the work of the germ is not destroyed hair keeps thinning till baldness comes. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ, and now there has been no hair preparation that would do it, but today dandruff is easily eradicated by Newbro's Herpicide, which makes hair glossy and soft as silk. Sold by leading druggists. Send five stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

With Hundred Thousand Capital Formed At Nanking.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 28.—The Department of Commerce and Labor is in receipt of unofficial advice to the effect that a limited liability company with a capital of $100,000 has been formed by the Chinese for the manufacture of cigarettes in Nan-quality seem to be the essential success in this branch of industry.

Coolies are constantly to be seen smoking cigarettes, which are gradually replacing the long and cumbersome tobacco pipe.

ELEANOR SIDMAN, WHO APPEARS IN "YORK STATE FOLKS" TONIGHT

play. Mr. Beresford doesn't even ride a hobby. His is the comedy of the intellect mellowed by the union of the natural funmaker.

Still it is not necessary to analyze his methods. He makes people laugh continuously, uproariously and with gusto. That is why people, lots of people—people in crowds, buy tickets to see Harry Beresford in "The Woman Hater."

Of course, there are a great many people who do not buy seats to see Mr. Beresford, but it must be remembered that there are not built large enough to hold every body in town at one time. Everybody will have to take their turn. If there are not enough seats for everybody, this time remember that Mr. Beresford production of "The Earl and the Girl," which comes to the Myers theatre on Thursday, Nov. 1, is well and favorably known to local theatre patrons who will welcome this opportunity to see the funny fellow again.

There are many other favorites in the strong cast supplemented by a large chorus of unusual beauty and grace. For example, the role of a dog fancier who is introduced to impersonate an Earl, drawn by a circus strong woman, who accuses him of jilting her daughter. The production throughout will be one of the most elaborate and prodigious yet presented at the Myers Grand.

..Forty Years Ago..

Janesville Daily Gazette, Saturday, September 29, 1866.—Eating on the State Fair Grounds.—The different denominations and individuals who kept refreshment stands on the State Fair Grounds this year, have not made a very big thing out of it. The truth is the business is quite overdone, and the profits of any one booth cannot be realized last year while one or two will be involved in absolute loss.

We shall publish the net profits of each stand as soon as we can obtain them.

A Little Part of Our Own.—The Gazette Job Office had on exhibition at the State Fair some specimens of plain and ornamental printing that drew forth numerous compliments from the lovers of what is neat and beautiful in the art preservative of all arts. For cards, circulars, bill heads and general job work we can give you a sample. No. 1. A large, able type is "Hearst," says "Collier's." Perhaps if Collier's will watch Mr. Hearst's many newspapers for the next few weeks it will find reason to shade its opinion.

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT.

The business world has a right to know of any business man not only where he spends his days, but where he spends his nights. It has a right not only to know his financial standing, but also his status in the scale of social decency.

It matters not how profanely he may protest, that his private affairs are not other people's business. But the protest is that of the man in the wrong. The man who is faithful to the duties of his office and false to the standards of domestic decency must have his financial credit marked down and the business confidence of his fellow men lowered to the class of extra hazardous risks. Such men are adventurers masquerading before the community as respectable people, under the belief that they are deceiv-ing those about them. But a man who can neither be true to himself nor loyal to his family cannot be a safe leader in industry, commerce or finance, because the very foundations of integrity have become rotten in his character. He is a man divided against himself.

The Wall Street Journal, devoted to questions of finance at the great money center of the country, thus moral-izes on, "What People Have a Right to Know." The paper has discovered that more than money is necessary to make a man, and it is in position to study the question at close range.

The great ambition of life is to make money, and the prevailing weakness of this ambition today is to secure it without effort. The means used to gratify ambition along this line are seldom questioned, and in the mad rush for gain moral sensibilities are blunted.

The fact is frequently overlooked that man is an accountable being and that in spite of his independence the public eye is upon him and the court of public opinion always in session.

This open court may be ignored, but that does not influence results, and the man who openly defies it is as certain of conviction as time is to transpire.

The world is well populated with law-abiding citizens and while crime is of daily occurrence the masses are not criminals. Yet the great code of unwritten laws is being ruthlessly violated every day by men who say by actions, if not by word, "What care

I for the court of public opinion."

This class of people overlook the fact that public opinion is almost invariably right and that the judgment pronounced on private character is not often reversed.

The books of the great commercial agencies contain a history of every business man in the country. From the smallest hamlet to the great centers of population the record is complete.

The information recorded by an army of employees is a skeleton biography, not of one man or class of men, but of every man in trade.

It dates back to his first business venture, and is brought down to date, and has to do not only with his financial standing, but with his habits and methods and moral character as well.

The information gathered from every conceivable source is not published to the world, but it is an open book to people who are interested in extending credits, and reads something like this:

"John Doe, married, owns his home free from mortgage, commenced business in 1895 with ample capital and a reputation for honesty and square dealing, made money for ten years, but during the last year has met with heavy losses as the result of wildcat speculation, became dissipated through despondency and his business has suffered accordingly, caution advised in extending credit."

John Doe was on the verge of bankruptcy because he flattered himself that it was nobody's business how he invested his time and his money.

The commercial agencies stand between the business world and loss through failures caused by incompet-ency, neglect and dishonesty and it is gratifying to know that the latter cause is largely in the minority.

But there is another tribunal of larger scope and wider range which has to do with all classes of people in every community. It is a nameless organization, without charter or by-laws and is supported without the aid of money; yet it is just as effective as the closest corporation ever organized.

This open court with free lance for everybody, in sight is the people's court, and it deals with both reputation and character. No man or woman, boy or girl, may defy it with impunity.

No written record is kept for distribution, but its verdict is final and extremely difficult to modify.

The girl who turns a deaf ear to the solicitude of a mother, and in the wild abandon of thoughtlessness tarnishes her fair name by simple in-discretion, soon discovers a well-definied line which she may not cross.

Her character may be as pure as the snow, but the jewel of reputation is lost beyond recovery and the prospects of a life full of promise are hopelessly shattered.

The wife and mother in the home is secure so long as she is loyal to the little family over which she presides. Many a home has been blitted and ruined because the breath of suspicion was invited by some act of indiscretion.

It is a popular notion in this rapid age that the boys of today are entitled to a better time than their father enjoyed, and as a result of this false sentiment eighty-five per cent of the college graduates are dependent upon the bounty of the home until after they have passed the age of maturity.

The value of a dollar has never been estimated, and the necessity for exercising thrift and practicing economy is left for later years to develop. The court of public opinion knows no difference between the college boy and the boy who graduates from the grades, except that more is expected of the former because of greater opportunities enjoyed.

The self-made man may or may not be the product of a college. It all depends upon the amount of sacrifice and energy invested in the foundation.

Many young men who enter life from the common schools attribute failure to the fact that they never enjoyed the advantages of higher education, when it is evident to their friends that this loss, if loss it be, has nothing to do with it.

In the adjustment of life the average man occupies the largest niche he is capable of filling before he reaches middle life, and the size of the niche depends very largely upon the reputation established.

Many a young man has handicapped himself before he was twenty-one by the associations which he chose for an environment and by the habits formed in these environments.

The commercial agencies watch the business world with eagle eye and faithfully record danger signals, while the business world watches the boys with cold unprejudiced vision.

The fact is recognized that the boys of today will be the business men of the next generation, and the preparatory school is waiting for them to enter. No examination is required except the standard of reputation, and many a boy has been surprised and humiliated to find his application turned down because he could not meet the simple requirement.

He was not aware that the business world knew so much about him.

The man who wanted a boy told him that he smoked cigars, that he occasional drank a glass of beer and played games of chance, and that he even knew where he spent his evenings, when he had flattered himself that all this was nobody's business.

His reputation was tarnished before his voyage was launched and his chances for success blighted at the outset. How did people find him

NEXT CONFERENCE IN CREAM CITY

INVITATION OF ASBURY CHURCH ACCEPTED BY METHODISTS.

STATISTICAL REPORT MADE

Two Hundred One More Members Than Last Year—Expenses of Churches and Sunday Schools Increased.

At the Wisconsin Methodist Episcopal church conference this morning much important business was transacted. The place of holding next year's session was selected, the statistical report was read and adopted and several speakers were heard. The meeting opened with devotional services, led by Bishop McCabe, at half past eight o'clock and the business meeting lasted from nine until nearly twelve.

Milwaukee Next Year.

Next year the conference will be held in Asbury church, Milwaukee. When the matter of selecting the meeting place was brought up the pastor of the Asbury church extended a most cordial invitation, stating that he did so at the instruction of his church conference. He called attention to the fact that though Milwaukee seldom had a ministerial gathering that it was a good convention city and that it needed the moral uplift that such a meeting gives to a town. No other invitations were received and that of the Asbury church was unanimously accepted.

Statistical Report.

The following statistical report for the year was read and accepted:

Mr. Denison Greets.

Rev. R. C. Denison of the First Congregational church of this morning extended the greetings of his society to the Methodists. In his remarks he deplored the inability of the denominational protestants to present a united front but expressed faith in the future. The leadership of the spirit which is the principle upon which the Congregational church was given birth, he believes, is leading all Christians toward unity. Bishop McCabe reiterated the statement he made Thursday morning that the Methodists were glad to be one with the other denominations in spirit but humorously added that no unity of churches could be reached until the others agreed to let the bishop appoint the ministers.

Address to New Ministers.

Dr. McCabe delivered the usual bishop's address to the class of admission to full connection with the conference. The new "full-fledged" pastors are Amos L. Tucker, Horatio S. Martin and Lewis W. Nixon. Several speakers addressed the conference this morning. They were: Rev. Frank L. Hart, D. D., of Chicago, field superintendent of the Board of Insurance of the Methodist Episcopal church; Rev. J. P. Brushingham, secretary and treasurer of the General Conference Commission on Aggressive Evangelism; and F. M. Larking of the Laymen's Relief Legion.

Figures and Corrections.

The Board of Trustees this morning reported that they had on hand $1,928.29 for the support of the proposed home for aged preachers at Delavan. At the request of Bishop McCabe a correction to a typographical error in a previous edition of the Gazette was made. The total valuation of colored school property in the south is $250,000 instead of $25,000.

Greetings to Others.

A motion was made and passed to have presiding elders or appointees extend the greetings of the Wisconsin conference to all other denominational conventions held in their districts. This means that Dr. McChesney will appear before the Baptist district convention soon to be held in Evansville and the Congregational convention soon to be in session in Beloit.

Among the visitors at the conference is Rev. Lewis M. Edwards of the Michigan conference.

Prohibition Rally.

The temperance anniversary this evening will amount practically to a prohibition rally. The speaker of the evening is Dr. E. L. Eaton of Madison, nominee for governor on the prohibition ticket and the prohibition campaign singers will appear.

Program Tomorrow.

There is some possibility that the appointment of ministers will not be made tomorrow evening. Some changes have been made in the program for tomorrow. The ordination services will be held at 2:30 instead of 3:30 in the afternoon. The Evangelistic meeting at 2:30 has been abandoned as the result of the arrangement of a mass meeting for men at the Y. M. C. A. at 3:00 o'clock. Dr. L. Munhall of Philadelphia will speak at 7:00 in the evening instead of Dr. Forbes. The program of the day and for Monday follows:

SUNDAY.

9:00—Conference Love Feast, led by Rev. Samuel Lutz.
10:30—Sermon by Bishop Charles C. McCabe, D. D., LL. D.
2:30—Ordination services and consecration of deaconesses.
7:00—Address, "The Book of Books," by Dr. L. Munhall, Philadelphia.
8:00—Evangelism, Rev. J. P. Brushingham, D. D.
MONDAY.
Morning Session.
8:30—Devotional Services, led by Bishop Charles C. McCabe.
9:00—Conference Session.

COUNCIL'S ACTION EAGERLY WATCHED

Franchise Followers Are Anxious to Have Measure Put to a Vote on Monday.

Janesville taxpayers and leading business men are still anxiously awaiting the decision of the common council as regards the franchise asked for by H. H. Clough of Elvira, Ohio. The council still appears divided upon the proposition and much pressure is being brought to bear by the friends and opponents of the road. It is doubtful if any decisive vote will be taken next Monday night, but there is a possibility that something will be done in the matter that will place it upon a definite status. Delays just now will be serious to the construction of the road, or even the completion of the preliminary survey this fall. Janesville wants the interurban and the majority of the aldermen say that they are in favor of it, but the hitch comes in the franchise question. It is said that the council has prepared two new franchises for Mr. Clough's consideration and that they will present them as substitutes for the one now before the council. It is not probable that Mr. Clough will accept any franchise that he has not had drawn up by his attorneys and the deadlock will probably come on this point. It is safe to say that ninety per cent of the citizens want the franchise and a majority of the business men of the city favor the Clough franchise. There will be much bunting of aldermen between now and Monday evening.

LOCAL LACONICS.

Bought Land in Canada: James R. Lamb has purchased 640 acres of farm land in Canada, just north of North Dakota. This is in the great wheat belt where a recent boom has raised the price from $8 to $20 per acre.

Aldermen Have Returned: Aldermen Brockhaus, Connell and Fish returned yesterday from Chicago where they attended the annual convention of the League of American Municipalities.

Men's Rally at 3:30 P. M.: The meeting for men at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow will be changed from 3 o'clock to 3:30. A great opportunity is in store for the men of Janesville to hear Rev. Wentworth P. Stevens of Detroit, Mich., on the topic, "His Life Worth Living." E. A. Folly, who was once a M. C. A. worker and a member of the old Bowler City quartet, will lead the singing. This will be a special opportunity for the men of Janesville to hear one of the leading speakers of the Methodist conference now in session. The large auditorium will be used and every man is urged to be present with a friend. You are sure to be repaid for coming.

Mrs. F. A. Bennett's Monument Business Rapidly on the Increase.

That it pays to deal with the public in an honest, straightforward manner is proven by the large volume of business being done by the monument firm of Mrs. F. A. Bennett. The desire of this firm is not to see how little they can give for the money, but how much, and to give each patron such excellent quality of work and such courteous treatment that they will not only be well pleased themselves but will speak a good word to their neighbor in behalf of the firm. For over thirty-five years the name of F. A. Bennett has been connected with the monument business in this city, and during that time there has not been one dissatisfied customer. The firm can certainly point with pride to this record. Mr. F. W. Freeborn, one of the most artistic marble and granite cutters in the country, has charge of all the lettering, and it is well worth anyone's time to stop in and see the beautiful work he does. Frank Derrick, Byron Rolfe and Dr. Kirkpatrick of Broadhead, have recently had large monuments placed in the Broadhead cemetery by this firm. In Mt. Olivet cemetery another large stone can be seen placed there by the Thos. Cunningham estate. Ten per cent discount will be given on all orders until January 1st, and the stock includes a splendid showing of all the best granites. Every piece is guaranteed, and in case of any job being disfigured from iron rust, it will be replaced free of charge.

Change in C. M. & St. P. Time Table.

There will be a new train for Madison and points west to North McGregor, leaving here at 8:15 in the morning and arriving at Janesville at 7:15 in the evening. The train for Mineral Point leaving here at 6:50 p. m. will be held until 7:15 in order to connect with the new train from North McGregor. TELLS OF THINGS THAT NEED CHANGE

INVESTIGATION STARTED IN ROCK COUNTY RECENTLY BY THE

RURAL SCHOOL INSPECTOR

Lack of Study of the Dictionary Found—Two Buildings in Bad Condition.

L. W. Wood, state inspector of rural schools, has been in Janesville the last two days inspecting the nearby schools in the first and second superintendents' district. He has thus far inspected schools in thirty counties of the state since a year ago last July. Regarding the general condition in the state he said that few were properly equipped and especially as regards the teaching of reading and dictionaries which he considers very important. The age of one-third of the rural school teachers is less than twenty while in the grade schools in the towns and villages it is rarely that one is found that is under twenty. Mr. Wood has been working to help these conditions in the school board conventions and many have responded.

As regards Rock county, in the main it compares very favorably with the other counties which he has inspected. On the other hand he found in two of the poorest buildings that he has yet come across, one in the first superintendents' district and one in the second and both within five miles of Janesville.

One of these was an old stone building which was never cleaned except as the teacher and her pupils cleaned it. The desks were made of pine boards and there was not a proper desk in the building. All this was within four miles of Janesville. With these two exceptions the buildings are generally fairly well built and equipped. The teachers compare favorably with those in the other counties of the state and one of the best teachers Mr. Wood has found so far he discovered in this county. The county is divided into two superintending districts. Chas. Hemmingsway being superintendent of the first and O. D. Antislod of the second. Mr. Wood lays especial emphasis on the fact that reading and the habit of using the dictionary and carefully looking up new words are not properly taught and that as a rule there is a noticeable lack of equipment for these studies. The habit of going to a dictionary and looking up unfamiliar words and thus familiarizing the pupils with them Mr. Wood considers very important. He does not think that reading can be properly taught until the schools are much better equipped all over the state.

Society.

An unusual score at bridge occurred in a game during the past week in a Beloit residence and the manner in which it was achieved will no doubt interest the many devotees of the game.

The cards were dealt. The dealer bridged the partner made the trump spades. The opponents doubled, the partner redoubled both continued to redouble until the actual value of each trick reached 32,768 points. The winner made two tricks bringing the score to 65,536.

The dummy hand held five trumps, with jack and ten for honors. Opponent's hand had five trumps with ace, king, queen for honors. To further illustrate the possibilities of the popular game, the tabulation in the instance noted is herewith reproduced:

In the auditorium, richly decorated in harvest festival style, the seniors of the high school will this evening receive the freshmen. The event is annual and is the first social affair of school life in which the first-year students participate. Elaborate arrangements have been made and a very enjoyable function is in prospect.

The freshmen will be received at eight o'clock and after greetings the freshmen boys will conduct the senior young ladies and the senior young men the freshman girls to the auditorium. There refreshments will be served. The menu is very seasonable and includes pumpkin pie, cheese, doughnuts and coffee. This will be served by sixteen members of the sophomore class, using baskets instead of trays. After the luncheon games will be played until ten-thirty.

Tasty decorations have been placed in the building. In the hall leading to the auditorium potted plants, crimson and gold bunting, oriental screens and pillows have been used to advantage. In the auditorium the beautifications are rustic. The forest scenery from the stage has been so placed as to create an arbor in one end and in other places inviting cozy corners have been built. The seats are bates or hay. The whole has been finished with huge stalks of golden glow, cut maize, clusters or partially husked ears of corn and autumn leaves. The walls have been hung with bunting, studded with paper chrysanthemums. The lighting effect will be beautiful.

Jack-o'-lanterns on the stage and on the balcony will cast their mystic brilliancy from either side while a shaded glow will come from Japanese lanterns hung from the iron girders below the ceiling.

The committees in charge of the event are as follows: Reception

Sara MacLean, Belle Sherer, Kenneth Jeffris and Walter Airts. Decorating—Douglas McKee, Kenneth Jeffris, Vera Lynt, Marguerite Field, Tacy Nott and Archie Witherell. Refreshment—Lalla Soverhill, Florence Spooner, Maude Schnell and Mary McGinley. Amusements—Wallace Mills, Fred Jensen and Maude Spooner.

In honor of those who will attend W. DARING ROBBERY OF TWO MADISON STORES

Thieves, Thought to Have Headed This Way on the Early Train.

This morning Chief Baker of Madison telephoned to Chief Appleby of a daring burglary in Madison. A jewelry store was entered last night and everything of value except what was in the safe was taken. The burglars also entered a hardware store and took about a hundred pairs of calipers worth eighteen dollars a set. The only clue the Madison police have is the fact that two men attempted to buy tickets to Monroe on the three a. m. train over the Northwestern road. On learning that they would have to change roads at Janesville, they bought tickets to Janesville. These men are supposed to have known something of the burglary as they had a heavy telescope with them. The police of Janesville are on the lookout for any suspicious characters in town.

WHERE HAS WEALTH OF DECEASED GONE?

Beloit Woman Believes She Has Money But Does Not Know.
The question Mrs. "Dick" Garde of Beloit is asking herself these days is whether or not her husband died penniless. At the time of his death those who knew of his considerable money life that he had received told his wife that he had just sold but when she went to the Hyde & Brittan and Second National banks of Beloit, where Garde had been in the habit of keeping his money, she found that he had withdrawn all his money shortly before his death, but the exact time was unknown.
The tin box, in which he had been accustomed to keep his papers and valuables, could not be found in the place where Garde usually kept it or in any other place even by the most rigorous search. His widow is certain that he held mortgage on some one property, but who the mortgagee is, what his name is, or where he lives she does not know. As a result of this mystery she is left in a condition of poverty, the visible property which Garde left being only the home she lives in, and one hundred and twenty cords of wood in the wood-yard which her husband owned.
A fact of which she thought nothing at the time but which seems to bear on the mystery is the following: Awakening one night she saw Mr. Garde looking over some papers and on her asking him what he was doing he replied that he was straightening up his affairs. Within a week after this Garde returned to Beloit and did not return until a late hour. He had often employed a Janesville attorney and Mrs. Garde thinks it very probable that he took all his papers to Janesville on that night and left them in charge of this attorney. The truth of this supposition she has as yet had no opportunity to ascertain, not having been able to see the attorney in question so far. In spite of the fact that her husband had always bewailed his lot as a poor man, he was known by his friends to be thrifty in his dealings. It is not thought possible that he was as poor as he represented himself to be, especially as he had received $5000 when he left his own home and had done a big business with his wood-yard. These facts lead Mrs. Garde to think that he represented himself to be much poorer than he was. One fact that strengthens this belief is a remark made by him on his death bed: "All the money I have saved up and it won't do me any good." Mrs. Garde hopes that the man who gave the mortgage to her husband will let her know who he is and pay the interest. So far in spite of the efforts of friends and relatives no clue has been found.

NO FOOTBALL GAME FOR LOCALS TODAY

Brookhead Canceled and is Playing Evansville—Contest Next Friday a Possibility.
Because Brookhead canceled her date with Janesville and made arrangements to play Evansville, the Janesville high school football team did not open their schedule today as was anticipated. The notice came too late for Manager Haumerson to secure another game for today. The season will probably be ushered in next Friday afternoon. The Milton Junction high school desires to play here at that time and it is probable that their offer will be accepted. However, Sacred Heart college of Watertown desires to play here next Saturday and it is possible that they will be given the preference, Saturday being more convenient than Friday for a game. The local boys will play Brookhead at Brookhead Saturday, October 13, and the Beloit high school will play here October 27. The annual Port Atkinson game is to take place at Port Atkinson Saturday, November 24. Janesville may play at Monroe November 3 and at Woodstock November 17, but neither of these dates have been definitely settled. There may be no Thanksgiving day game.
Coach Haumerson has the boys out practicing every afternoon at the close of school and is developing a fast but light team. As all the universities have discarded heavy men as the result of the new rules much is expected of the Janesville team. Players for some of the positions have not yet been definitely settled upon, but the line-up will be from the following: center, Howland or Boyd; guards, Woodworth, Church and Burgess; left tackle, Tiernan; right tackle, Cassidy; sub-tackle and sub-end, P. Strang; ends, Connors and Langdon; quarter back, O. Wright or John Nuzum; full back, Frank Nuzum; halfbacks, D. Wright, Clarence Horley, Fred Jensen and W. Poenichen.

ALL PRICES ARE AT THE TOP NOTCHES

Tobacco Growers Are Still Receiving Large Prices For Their Crops.
Buyers are doing just enough riding in the growing districts to hold prices up to former quotations without lifting very much of the unsold portions of the crop and this seems most likely to be the program to the end of the season, says the Edgerton Reporter. So much of the crop has been contracted for at high prices, packers having so much at stake, will hardly permit any late comers to secure their tobacco at less figures. It is also quite generally known that the policy of the American Tobacco

Co. is to maintain prices for the present crop at a high level and in view of these conditions there seems small chance to even up at the latter end of the season. Sales coming to notice give the trend of recent prices.

The harvest has been completed and no frosts have as yet occurred in any of the growing sections. Some complaint of shed damage is heard where crowding of large growth in the shed had been practiced, stem rot has occurred. To what extent is not yet determined, but the weather continues quite favorable to the curing. The shipments out of storage reach about 200 cases for the week past to all points from the Edgerton market.

Yes, and Yellow.
